Jimmy run, Jimmy flew
Jimmy tore his shirt in two
Run Jimmy run or the pateroller get you
Run Jimmy run and you better get away
Run Jimmy run or the pateroller get you
Run Jimmy run and you better get away

Jimmy run, past my gate
Run Jimmy run you slept too late.

Jimmy run, he run his best
Stove his head in the hornet's nest.

Jimmy run, through my corn field
The black snake bit him on the heel

These are Doc Watson's altered lyrics (except added verse 2). Other versions have a rebel, or a moonshiner running from the Federals.
