The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of five staves of music. The first staff begins with a G chord and a boxed 'A' above it. The second staff includes G, C, and D chords, and is marked with a first ending '1.'. The third staff includes G and D chords, and is marked with a second ending '2.' and a boxed 'B'. The fourth staff includes G, C, and D chords. The fifth staff includes two first endings, both marked with '1.' and '2.' and a G chord. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

This section provides two variations for the piece. The first variation, labeled 'Var A1, A3, A5 Pick-ups', shows a melodic line starting with a pick-up note. The second variation, labeled 'Frequent sub for A2-A3', shows a different melodic line. Both variations are written in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#).

Billy Mathews Barndance recording contains a lot of variations. This partially comes from his lesson recording which is a little more consistant.
